

Dear Future Wolverine,

The University of Michigan chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon is once again sending you information in regards to our Balanced Man Scholarship. This is the 11th year that we have offered this scholarship, and thanks to your dedicated work in making this scholarship available to students, the pool of candidates has become stronger each year.

This $1,000, $500, and $250 scholarship is available to any MALE attending the University of Michigan in the Fall of 2012. The applicant is under no obligation to join any organization to be eligible for consideration. We at Sigma Phi Epsilon are seeking to recognize outstanding individuals in the areas of academics, athletics, and community service. Embodiment of leadership, scholarship, and personal development ideals form the basis of our award-winning Balanced Man and Sound Mind—Sound Body programs. The importance of this scholarship has not gone unnoticed with past key not speakers of Coach John Belien (Men's Basketball Coach), Coach Lloyd Carr (Former Football Coach), and the legendary author Jon Falk at our annual awards banquet held in Ann Arbor.

The application is on our website at <http://uofmsigep.chapterspot.com/page.php?pageid=6>. Also included is a copy of the application for your convenience. Please distribute this to your graduating seniors who are applying to the University of Michigan. All materials are due by May 31st.

If you have any questions regarding the application, please e-mail Justin Palka, jjpalka@umich.edu, or Todd Needle, tneedle@umich.edu. Thank you for your time and continued support of our program.

Sincerely,
